Whom so ever it may concern

The athletes participating in the Special Olympics Bharat trainings and competition events are invariably using medicines as prescribed by the registered medical practitioner. In no way they are under the influence of drugs. The sports which are conducted are dope free as per the guidelines issued by WADA/NADA. There has been no instance in the past wherein any of the athletes has been found under the influence of drugs. It is closely monitored by the coaches and as well as camp in-charge.
